When does the holiday season start?

> Someone told me the holiday season begins today, after November 11. I didn't quite believe it, so I took a quick drive around town last night, and sure enough. I was even introduced to a new friend, all decked out - Biggy the Piggy. Fake snow was added.

> The folks at Roots & Blues issued a call-out to Canadian musicians to apply now to play at next year's festival. Well, there's at least one US performer who I guarantee would make a smash headliner, if available. Jesse Welles evokes the folk protest era, yet he is young and speaks so eloquently and forcefully to today. Look for him on youtube and you will see.

❖ Among the largest crowds in recent memory turned out to pay their respects around the cenotaph this Remembrance Day morning. Highlights included historian Barbara Raynor's account of her journey to France and Belgium to locate the graves of fallen soldiers; the poppy display by the Salvation Army; a fly-past and a reading by 100 year old veteran Jack Stead.

LIFE STOLEN

Family and friends of Salmon Arm-raised Kitty Hayward (Schindler) are heartbroken by the loss of Kitty Hayward who was found slain in her home in Chilliwack on Friday.

Her estranged and abusive husband, Kris Hayward, was charged with second degree murder and appeared in Chilliwack court on Monday.

Kitty, 52, was deeply loved by her two children and five grandchildren and all who knew her. "Her kindness and compassion drew people to her", read one tribute on Facebook. "'She made friends easily and built lasting friendships."

Earlier this year, she began studies to become a social worker, driven by her desire to help people escape abusive relationships and to support families in need.

> What's up westside? It's fascinating to watch how development completely transforms a footprint of land. Country Camping, behind Winners and Walmart, pushed over a bunch of its RV stock to make way for what is quickly taking shape above - A new destination for travellers and locals to fuel up on gas, snacks, whoppers, Mary Brown chicken, liquor, and, who knows what else. It is starting to look a little like that popular stop spot at Whatcom Exit No. 95.

> Montebello, a signature building in heart of downtown

> What's up downtown? A thing that strikes me on a quick stroll around downtown's superblock and beyond are the number of 'adornment' shops and salons catering to hair, nails, tattoos, skin and other spa-like services. Here are just a few of the names: Blackbird Hair & Body Piercing, Pinz Tattoo, Ihvory Hair, Botanica Spa, Mossy Stump, Sugar Smooth Tattoo Removal & Salon, Noon Nail, Legendary Tattoo, Exervia massage, Mismack Cosmetics, Lime Design. Bella Vida Spa, Hudson Collective, Suzi's, Lonestar, Body Waves, Beauty Boutique, Head Gamez, Fern Spa & Lashes, SA Nails, SA Barber, Classic Barber, Suzi's Salon, Shwap Barber, Raceway Barber, Live Well, plus assorted wellness, yoga gym, physiotherapy & massage clinics.

Racing vehicles end in fatality

A Mustang following an Audi at speeds in excess of 140 km/h spun out of control and slammed into the concrete divider on the westbound off ramp of the Mary Thomas bridge, killing the car's driver.

Salmon RCMP, Fire Department and EHS Rescue attended the accident that occurred at 7:30 pm Friday night.

Police report the black Ford Mustang came to a stop perpendicular to the road with massive driver's side damage. A grey Audi coupe also stopped further ahead on the highway. The highway was closed for approximately four hours with a detour setup.

Eye witness accounts, relayed to police investigators, said that both vehicles were observed speeding on the left-lane. The Mustang moved into the right-hand lane and attempted to pass the Audi, then lost control causing the vehicle to spin clockwise. The Mustang grazed the Audi before sliding into the concrete divider for the off-ramp".

The 19-year-old male driver of the Mustang died on scene despite life saving efforts from paramedics. The 23-year-old male driver and passenger in the Audi were both uninjured.

Anyone who witnessed the fatality, or who may have dash camera footage from the area between 7:30 and 7:40 pm, and has not yet spoken to police, is asked to contact the Salmon Arm RCMP and reference file 2026-7099.

Stepson texts death threat

A 59-year-old man reported his 18-year-old stepson, who no longer lived in Salmon Arm, sent him a text messages threatening to stab him, castrate him, and kill him.

The stepson had also previously stabbed the complainant few years prior.

Salmon Arm RCMP contacted the police detachment where the 18-year-old lived and requested they arrest him for uttering threats. He was arrested and released with a future court date to speak to the allegations.

A 42-year-old woman was reported attempting to shoplift at a local store. Police say staff at the store pointed out the woman to police who had been seen stuffing merchandise into her backpack and attempting to leave.

Police then arrested the woman and confirmed her backpack was full of store merchandise that was not paid for. The woman provided a false name she was unable to corroborate.

After approximately 45 minutes the woman finally identified herself and was found to have outstanding warrants. The woman was held for a bail hearing for her warrants and charged for wilfully obstructing a peace officer. She was released by a judge on a release order with conditions and a future court date.

ATV crash claims life

One person died and another was airlifted to hospital following an ATV accident near Adams Lake.

Shuswap Search & Rescue volunteers were called Oct. 31 after an ATV carrying two riders went over an embankment along a forest road.

The team expressed condolences to the family of Chuck Sleasman.

> Rescue team at accident

Farmer-businessman leaves legacy

A second ATV accident on the same day took the life of well known Shuswap farmer and businessman.

Ken Regehr was responsible for many business ventures in and around Salmon Arm, but whenever asked what he did for a living, his answer was always simply, "I'm a farmer."

He and his family raised cattle and poultry in the Hullcar valley and, for a period in the 1990s, grew ginseng for the Asian market.

His developer legacy include two large subdivisions off Okanagan Ave. and below SAS Sullivan; McIntosh Grove as well as Rapid Span in Armstrong, Purple Springs Nursery and other developments in Silver Star and the Okanagan.

A funeral service for the 76-year-old 'farmer' will take place 10:20 am, Nov. 11 at Mt. Ida Mennonite Church . ■

> Shuswap volunteer Search & Rescue mourn the loss of Don Reed, a member of its founding team. Reed, an integral SAR manager for several years, passed away Sept. 30 at age 81, and inspiration for the entire team.

> Work has now started on replacing the room wing of the Quaaout Lodge that was destroyed in a fire four years ago. The design will be a little more "curvy" like the surviving section and will include new features like a spa and signature outdoor sauna.

SOMETHING GHASTLY

Nothing Fancy, the new live music venue that volunteers worked hard to open earlier this summer, was broken into on Wednesday night.

Many valuable items were stolen, including equipment on loan from Acorn Music and Shuswap Theatre.

Police have opened an investigation and the public is asked to keep a watch for items being sold at low prices. (List of equipment on right ◗)

Members of the music community have come forward to find replacements and possible leads, and a donation site has been launched at https://www.zeffy.com/en-CA/donation-form/donate-to-renovate-nothing-fancy

Sound equipment stolen include:
- Minimum 12 Channel mixer board
- Powered PA Speaker Mains 12" - 15"
- Powered monitor speaker wedges
- Microphones: Shure SM58's, SM57's, Kick Mic, drum overheads
- XLR Cables with Neutrik connectors

Please.. and thank you!

I would like to ask a small favour to all those reading this, if I could. I targeted 1,400 unique visits over three days to read this edition of the November All Month.

Since it was posted on Wednesday afternoon there's been a little over 325 reads.

I'd simply like to ask you, in the interest of the writers and photographers who made the effort to contribute to it; the advertisers who believe in what I'm doing and continue to place ads at a small fraction of the former rate; plus my own semi-retirement dedication, if you would not only go to FriAM.ca for, I daresay, a good read, but perhaps suggest to your friends and family to check it out as well.

If you enjoyed Friday AM over its three decades, I believe you will like the online format that carries on. You can also print it and expand the type as large as you like.

The three-page To-Do's section alone offers an at-a-glance look at over 100 events happening in our community. It will save you time and effort scrolling through Facebook, navigating the web cluttered with out-of-date information, and perusing telephone poles and poster boards in the rain.

One more thing, today marks my 32nd anniversary of arriving in Salmon Arm. ■

Coyote camouflage

> This coyote thought no one could see it being so well camouflaged in a snowy field in the Kamloops area, but he did not escape the eagle eyes of photographer Valerie Walsh.

Once it's gone, it's gone

> Two public art pieces by Warren Welter on a single image; one of them gone.

The Observer just printed a letter from a visitor highly disappointed to find the reel design on the rear of the old Salmar Classic painted over.

"Character like that is rare," wrote Jody Michelle Rempel about the popular landmark. "It gave locals something to be proud of and visitors something to photograph."

It was even featured on the film, Halation.

I believe our community dropped the ball by not trying to save it. While the building is being repurposed, the words could have been changed to something like "Around downtown - the reel deal." Sadly, once gone, it's gone. ■
